

POSITION STATEMENT ON EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSIVITY

The Society of Radiographers of South Africa (SORSA) recognises that everyone has the right to equality, freedom and to be respected and treated with dignity without bias. These values underpin the functioning of SORSA in accordance with its constitution.

- SORSA remains committed to cultivate an organisational culture that embraces equity, diversity and inclusivity.
- SORSA commits to treat all members and office-bearers fairly within the limits of the current ethico-legal frameworks in South Africa that are pertinent to the profession of radiography and SORSA.
- SORSA endeavours to continue advocating for change relative to the inequalities and injustices that its members and the profession may face in fulfilling their professional duties.
- SORSA denounces all forms of bullying, harassment, victimisation, racism, sexism and all other forms of unlawful discrimination.
